

B'Nai B'riths Meet Tonight

Tonight at 8 o'clock South Bay B'Nai B'rith Women will hold their regular monthly meeting at the Torrance Y.W.C.A., 2320 Carson St.

Short business session will be followed by a social hour including games and refreshments. Members desiring transportation may call Mrs. Ida Rosenfeld, 1829 W. 152nd St., Gardena, Me 4-3380; or Mrs. Helene Yeskin, 1624 Greenwood Ave., Torrance 2230 R.

Plans are complete for the third annual Fashion Show and Membership Tea of the group, slated for Wednesday, Aug. 13, at 8 p.m. at the Torrance Woman's Club.

In addition to original fashions by Emerson's French Model Shop of Inglewood and children's fashions by Kale's of Torrance and Gardena, there will be California styled furs by Maurice Ball of Los Angeles.

Tickets may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Yeskin. Donation of $1 includes refreshments.

CLOTHES DAMAGE

Textile authorities estimate that clothes-moths cause some $100,000,000 loss each year in woolen and other animal fiber textures.

Former Local Woman Flies East to Meet, Is Ordained

Mrs. Edna Prowten, former long-time resident of 2512 Torrance Blvd., flew east recently on a double mission.

At Milwaukee she represented California at the convention of an International Speakers' Club, speaking before an audience of approximately 2000 persons.

Mothers' Breakfast Draws 200 People

About 200 people attended the combination breakfast, bazaar and food sale sponsored by the Mothers Club of Job's Daughters Saturday at the Episcopal Church.

"We made over $100 profit," Mrs. George Crabtree, secretary, said, "and some of the girls still have tickets to turn in."

Money will be used to send members of Job's Daughters to a camp at Crestline in August.

Brother Spends Weekend With Mrs. C. A. Smith

An unexpected visitor at the Acacia Ave. home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Albert Smith this past weekend was her brother, L. S. Robbins of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

On Saturday hosts and guest enjoyed a wicker bake at Playa del Rey. Joining with them for the outdoor event were Mr. and Mrs. William E. Moon and Mrs.

From Milwaukee she traveled to Indianapolis where she was ordained by a friend and teacher, Dr. Hurley of the Indianapolis College of Metaphysics.

Mrs. Prowten has been studying religion and philosophy for the past eight years. She received her masters' degree in religious science and philosophy from the Institute of Religious Science and Philosophy in Los Angeles in 1948.

Since then she has received a doctorate in metaphysics and philosophy and intends to continue with her teaching and lecture work.

She is the wife of Charles Prowten of Lakewood and the mother of Charles, Jr. of Long Beach and of Jimmy, well-known Torrance High School student remembered for his athletic ability who lost his life in World War II when his plane crashed at Thunderbird Field.

Mrs. P. Parker, Mr. Smith's sister, of Torrance.

Sunday, drive through Los Angeles and a visit to the Observatory climaxed the visitor's sojourn here.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE FETES MRS. ARNOLD

Surprise was on the doorstep when Mrs. Joe Arnold opened the door of her home, 1551 Post Ave., Sunday evening.

Close friends from Torrance and the surrounding area stood there with gifts, refreshments, including a gay circus cake; and best wishes for her birthday. Mesdames Neal Baker, Glen Babcock, and Phillip Hoffman, her daughter, planned the surprise for Mrs. Arnold.

Television charades and community singing around the piano highlighted the social-gathering.

Those attending the birthday occasion were Messrs. and Mesdames H. L. Allison and daughter, Sharon; Phillip Hoffman and daughters, Pam and Perky; Kenneth Thompson and Mrs. James Adelaide Hemmell, Lillian Sheridan, Leo Miller, May Sidebotham, Backer, and Babcock of Torrance.

Mesdames Harold Davis and daughter, Carol; Wayne Lawson; Jessie Austin; and Mr. Jack Lawson of Long Beach; Mrs. Myrtle Keith and Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson of Gardena; and Mrs. Jane Betts of Los Angeles.

Mesdames Clarence Knight, Lester Hockett; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller of Redondo Beach; Messrs. and Mesdames Charles McCuan and Julius Bastica of Inglewood; Mr. Perry Arnold, who is visiting his brother, husband of the honoree, from Chicago, Ill., and Harry Toots, guest of the Arnolds from Houston, Tex.

MRS. A. E. PALMER ENTERTAINS GUESTS

Mrs. A. E. Palmer, 1501 W. 215th St., has been busy the past two weeks entertaining guests.

Last week-end she was hostess to her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Abel. Prior to their visit, Mrs. Palmer entertained her mother and sister, Mesdames Martha Fork and Lois Marsh of Gibbon, Neb., and another sister, Mrs. Glen Taylor of North Hollywood.

As this was their first trip to California, the Nebraska visitors took several sightseeing tours during their week's stay in Torrance.

FLARED SKIRTS

Newest silhouette news is the waist-flattering, hip-concealing full skirt made of a crisp fabric or worn over crinoline and taffeta petticoats. In modified lines, the style is flattering to the mature figure.

PTA Enchilada Feed to Aid Dental Goal

Enchiladas will aid the teeth Monday, Aug. 4, when Perry School P.T.A. serves that dish at McMaster Park from 6 to 8 p.m.

Total donation proceeds from the dinner will be turned over to the dental program chairman of the Torrance Council P.T.A. as a contribution towards the dental health goal.

Program, as outlined by Mrs. Glenn Blake, president, is to hold at least one dental health class here a year, and to include use of dental health films at association meetings.

The goal is then to translate dental health knowledge into dental health practice.

Reservations for the enchilada dinner may be made by calling Mesdames Blake, Me 4-0038; W. A. Wright, Fr. 2-2288; or MacKenzie, Fr. 4-0069.

NURSES' BREAKFAST SCORES SUCCESS

Harbor Area Nurses Association served over 200 people and made a profit of over $124 Sunday at their annual waffle breakfast, held at the home of Margaret Burch, 124 "O" St., Wilmington. Helen Scott, RN, publicity chairman, revealed.

"We were ready to serve at 6 a.m., but as the skies were rainy we didn't get our first customer until 8 a.m.," she said. At the 6 p.m. closing hour, the nurses were serving 20 people, she said.

Proceeds of the breakfast will be used in maintaining study grants for girls entering nursing training. Margaret Burch, ways and means chairman, was in charge of the affair.

Continental's 'Come As Are To Breakfast

Continental's Y-Teen group, were roused out of bed early last Tuesday to attend a "come as you are" breakfast at the home of Janice Crabtree, 1753 Gramercy Ave.

Janice, together with Joanne Radulovich, president; Carolyn Chapman, past president; Carol Campbell, and Janice Moffatt planned the morning meal.

Others attending were Misses Ruth McDougall, Judy Adams, Carmelita Baliga, Betty Jean Eassa, Shirley Parrish, Marian O'Hara, Jeanette Harris, Carol Mayo, Rose Morris, Nancy Murakawa, Lillian O'Hara, Saeki Kawada, Bonnie Moore, Janice Knox, Betsy Shaw.

Amy Tanura, Jo Anne Webber, Carol Sue Winther, Mickey Van DeVenter, Coleen Stessen, Beverly Harrington, and Kazuto Hasagawa.

"Lollipop Hop" is tentatively planned by the group for Aug. 8.

Sabadas Dance at Alondra

It was "Ladies' Night" last Saturday night at Club Alondra when the Sabadas held their monthly dance there from 9:30 p.m. to 2 a.m.

"Thank you" banner stretched across one end of the hall set the theme for the summer affair, which was held in honor of the 1951-52 committee members, Messrs. and Mesdames Jack Clayton, Cliff Graybehl, and Jack Dabbs.

Gay cotton skirts swirled and bright blue jeans kept in rhythm with record music. Women wore wrist corsages, and men tucked in boutonnières made by the dance committee.

BRASE, WIFE TAKE TRIP TO HOSPITAL

The William Brase home, 2435 Border St., has headquarters this week in Torrance Memorial hospital; both husband and wife are under doctor's care.

Brase was taken to the hospital with a broken leg a week ago, and his wife went in this week for a tonsillectomy. Mrs. Brase expects to be "up and around" in three or four days, while her husband will remain in the hospital for three weeks.

Meantime, the Brase children, Sharon, Tommy, Loretta, and Sheila, are being cared for by the grandparents, Mesdames Ray Yocum and Belva Brase.
